American Baptist Association Expected to Bring 2,200 to Springfield June 23-25

Springfield, Mo. – The Messenger Assembly of the American Baptist Association will convene in Springfield June 23-25.

Activities during the convention, which is themed "Revive Us Again – Psalm 85:6," are free and open to the public, however, only messengers are allowed to vote.

Activities will take place at the Expo Center and include: discussion on how the group will support its missionaries on Wednesday and ABA literature on Thursday. (The group prepares and prints literature for its churches). Evening services on Tuesday and Wednesday are devoted to preaching of The Word, with special music provided by the County Avenue Baptist Church adult choir from Texarkana, Ark. Speakers are: President Roger Copeland, Texarkana, Ark.; Robert Myers, Gambrills, MD; and missionary Gerardo Carrion, Mexico City, Mexico.

The Messenger Assembly of the American Baptist Association strives to encourage cooperation and Christian activity among the churches, promote interest in and encourage missions on a New Testament basis among all people, stimulate interest in Christian literature and general benevolence and provide a medium through which churches may cooperate in these enterprises.
